ETHOS Write Up

Looking back...you did a lot of projects over the last school year and you had to deal with a lot of different personalities. You were given deadlines and had to manage your own time to get projects done:

1) Do you think you put in your best work on your projects? Or did you just wait till the end and try to turn in something for points?

2) Did you try to perfect your projects, or was quality not as important compared to just getting it turned in.

3) What was your favorite part about this year (academically)?

What was your favorite field trip?

4) What is something you would suggest I change for the next junior class so they have a better experience?

5) Anything Else?
